The truck is parked inside a large, empty warehouse. The rear's facing the depths of the building. Most of the building is wrapped in shadow behind the glare of three pairs of headlights angled in your direction. The headlights carve a bright circle of light directly in front of you.

A circle of moreaus stand at the edge of the lights, defining the otherwise-fuzzy boundaries of a ten-meter circle on the cracked, oil-stained concrete floor. You quickly scan your audience, all in Running Dogs' gang colors. Over a dozen gang members are watching you.

- Ask to see the boss.
- Calmly step out of the truck.
- Stay put and wait for them to make the first move.

game was bad. no one wanted to be m8s. censored "♥♥♥♥hat". 3/8. Great idea. Flawed execution so far and I usually love games where you operate machinery. UI is extremely confusing, controls are clunky, etc. Needs a lot of work. This is very early access so be forewarned. Asked for a refund.. This game is awesome, looking forward multiplayer ;). 9/10 blows.

Explanation: This game is gayer than 9 guys blowing 10 guys.. For the price, this is an excellent game, really gives you an amazing sense of scale and wonder. The graphics on the steam version are for some reason much better than the one in the oculus store. I played this on oculus rift and it definitely feels like theres no support. I'd love to see some updates, especially since all the narrations aren't there yet.. You should buy Star Vikings. It is a game with a fantastic gameplay for those who enjoy puzzles. The Vikings attack the snails with hits that cause chain reactions creating a very good feel. The music and all sound effects are exciting. It is a casual game in its essence but you need a lot of intelligence to do well in puzzles. I really liked it.. Here is my 30Second Game Review on Dark echo: <https://youtu.be/PjP5htKzZ10>

This game is like being Daredevil in a psychological thriller. Sound is your only friend. Every noise you make bounces off the wall, making you “see” a minimalistic impression of your surroundings. The effects - mesmerizing.

But you are not alone. You have to escape unknown creatures through mazes and puzzles. And when you make a noise, they notice you as well. So find a safe path, unlock doors and escape death.

Play it with headphones on and all alone in the dark and every step will be filled with tension.

Made of 80 levels with a cool horror atmosphere and a lot of originality.

Seven claps out of ten.. I enjoyed the game-play a lot and the presentation is really good.

If you want to jump in at current state of early access I feel that there is enough here to hold you over while more content is being developed.

You can tell this is a huge passion project with such a small 1 - 2 person team, the consistent art direction and quality of the game at this stage is really impressive, a lot of work must have gone into this game and I really wish them all the success I feel this game deserves.

was ok but they have dropped it again to bring out another game. disappointing. So I got to play this game during the free weekend event. It is still in alpha and needs a little work but the devs are on top of it. The game scared the hell out of me the first time I was killed by the demon. The devs are nice and listen. I will be buying this game in the near future and adding it to my streaming rotation.. A really good interactive game, my 4 year old loves the game and it is helping him learn some valuable keyboard and mouse skills.. Terrible boring repetitive puzzle game where all you do is swap numbers to make it equal a number. Basically sudoku ripoff, but with annoying cutscenes and dialogue that happens every time you accidentally exit out of a level and restart it, and half of which is unskippable. Pointless too as there's basically no story. Gameplay is trial and error and exact same thing entire game. Bored after 5 min. Idled for cards. 2/10.. Just not a fun game at all. Heroes enter your dungeon and you try to lure them to look at statues and enter your rooms so they become happy then you slay them collecting soul energy to make more statues and rooms . the game just sucks sry ... old but good. Upon purchase of this game, and I am assuming this applies to any game by this developer, the devs supply you with what is apparently the demo version of the game; after so many games they want you to pay for it again to buy a license. Checked their site; these games have free trial versions you can download from them directly, so it's a really low blow trying to monetize the free trial. In essence they're trying to get you to pay for it twice.

Avoid any games from this developer on Steam like the plague; I myself will never purchase another game of theirs via Steam ever again.

Gameplay wise, it's Bejeweled; if you liked Bejeweled, you'll probably like this.. ALL KEYBINDS ARE SET IN XBOX CONTROLS. Do not buy without a controller!!!!
